What is visible progress?

- From Princess: Wizden update
 - Some keys have moved over to Julian, Rey, and Smugleaf
 - Github, forums and discord
 - Basically everything easy to transfer
 - The rest of the keys require forming a legal entity
 - Wizden is currently looking at an e.V.
 - Will take a month at a minimum
 - PJB will fully be separating
 - Wizden is in the process for reforming their organization
 - They are trying to split up responsibilities to eliminate the possibility of bad actors.
 - Everything should be written down.
 - Checks and balances.

- Discussing stuff.
- Wizden would like more time to get their affairs in order before including fork people.
- Wizden is more or less on a PR freeze but it has not officially started
- The current community manager wants their role scope fully defined before they take major actions.
- Restructuring will be expensive (lawyers) but they should be financially solvent
- Wizden will communicate more in the future.
- Everyone present seems to agree that wizden has made visible progress in the past week.
 - We should continuously review their progress moving forward at every future meeting.
- We would like wizden to make weekly updates (at least to us) so we know stuff is still in motion.
 - Princess is willing to engage with us weekly (or at least whenever we have a meeting)

How do we want to be included

- From princess: Wizden wants to include forks more
 - Forks will be able to apply to join a group where they will be able to have a good dialogue with wizden.
 - There will be sane criteria for joining (eg. don't be dehubbed, don't be massive jerks)
 - Someone would have a veto
 - e.V. members/owners?
 - This would be some kind of channel where downstream maintains are explicitly included upstream.
 - Downstreams could be directly involved with upstream development.
 - More documentation
- A direct line of communication is mandatory from our perspective.
 - Would include PMs and senior fork maintainers
- General channel for junior fork maintains
- Restructuring is a higher priority at the moment from wizden's perspective.

Are we okay with PJB sticking around in any capacity?

REDACTED FROM PUBLIC VERSION

Do we want to insist on a wizden/engine split?

- Consider FSPs proposal?
 - The general idea is that "base ss14" would be its own repo and wizden would be a fork of that.
- Wizden is considering this as a low priority thing
 - Is still putting out fires
- Wizden does not want separate repos
- General feeling is it is not needed to insist on a split if downstreams are included substantially.

Do we want to open ourselves up more?

- if other forks want to be included here they can shoot me (aquif) a DM and I can start a vote
- We don't need more people here
- Vote for meeting minutes being released publicly.

When do we want to meet next?

- Every two weeks? - I will put this to a vote
 - Time varies
 - Friday night vote?
 - Two consistent times
