Wizden Update

Organizational Reform

- Wizards Den has made contact with Lawer and had a first meeting with them.
- It is going to cost a few thousand Euros (which is in-budget) for them.
- Staff structure is being reformed.
- They need to hire more community managers

PROVISIONAL WIZARDS DEN ORG CHART:

This is not final and subject to change. Arrows are hard to see on the doc and there is not really a good way to fix it.

Development Update

- They will be starting a freeze on the repo to work on policy
- Stable tag will be this week
- They intend to create a “Developer” position that is basically a maintainer but without clicking the merge button.
- Engine maintainer applications are not open now but will be in the future.

THE OG DEEP FRIER WILL FIX ALL CODE ISSUES.
